

Report on the application of the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of their Families

This report is intended to denounce facts proven by the Gadem or other associations, constituting violations of the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families. ratified the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families by Dahir 4-93-5 of 14 June 1993 and deposited the instruments of ratification on 21 June 1993.